

HW 4.1 Guide

1-6: These problems are based on the definitions from this section, as well as the properties of the linear correlation coefficient  $r$ .

7-11: These problems involve computing  $r$ , drawing scatter diagrams, concluding if a relation exists (and what type of relation it is), and touches on causation.